

BUY A BOOK FOR THE LIBRARY

KNOWLEDGE IS NOT A LUXURY.

Neither is inspiration, self-improvement or understanding.

Neither are the books that ought to be on the shelves of the Stockton-San Joaquin County Public Library.

That's why the money you contribute to the Library will not be spent on frills. Every cent will be used to purchase new books - books that will be available to the children who broaden their dreams through reading, and to the adults who read to learn more about themselves and their world.

Help increase the number of books on the shelves of your library. Contribute to the Library's BUY-A-BOOK CAMPAIGN today.

Nothing is more important than books . . . except the people who use them. That's why a contribution to the Stockton-San Joaquin County Public Library's BUY-A-BOOK fund is more than just a tax-deductible donation. It's a gift to the people in your community who rely on the public library for education and information. Please help them by giving what you can. Send your tax-deductible donation (payable to City of Stockton) to:
